The Vineyard

The ABTSBERG is without question our estate's most renowned vineyard site, famous for producing wines of almost peerless longevity. Its bedrock is blue Devonian slate, forming a rounded summit that opens up from southeast to southwest. The estate's finest parcels are located at the heart of that cone, which reaches gradients of up to 75%. While the full length of the 14-hectare ABTSBERG transitions seamlessly into the HERRENBERG to the west, the soil tends to be shallower and more fossil-rich here. This heightened minerality is reflected in its wines as well. In addition to Riesling, we also cultivate Pinot Noir on the ABTSBERG.

Tasting Notes

The bouquet seems already refreshing. Cool with complex flavours of herbs, yellow fruits, spices and red cassis. On the palate enormously juicy with vibrant texture and salty minerality. Perfect balance between acidity and residual sugar. It seems that the impression of salted lime fruit doesn't want to end.

Food Pairing

Spicy asian cuisine, mexican cuisine, german cuisine.
